

A photograph of a modern interior space, likely a living or dining area, before a move. The room features light-colored wood plank flooring and white walls. A large window or sliding glass door in the center provides a view of a garden with trees and a fence. To the right, there is a white, curved bar or partition wall. The ceiling is equipped with several recessed lights and a central pendant light fixture with three conical shades. A single cylindrical pendant light hangs from the ceiling near the window. The overall atmosphere is clean and minimalist.
